Gentlemen;

I am so incensed about the golden parachutes that Mudd and Syron will probably be given that I will keep this short before I get profane. The very idea that these 2 incompetents, if not criminals, could walk away from the mess they've helped create at the expense of taxpayers just doesn't make sense. I'd hope that someone, somewhere, in the decision-making process could say "Enough's enough", and have the courage to not allow this nonsense to continue. These men don't deserve to be awarded; they belong in jail.
